TWO MONTHS EXPERIENCE OF AN ORACLE One of the peculiarities of the ancient oracles was their ambiguity. When a certain monarch, on the eve of battle with a powerful nation, consulted his oracular deity as to the results of the conflict, he was told that a great nation would fall. The vanity of the questioner led him to interpret the pre-diction to his own especial advantage, and he concluded that his enemy was about to be delivered into his hands. When, however, the opposite result took place, and he became the conquered instead of the conqueror, he was wrathful with the oracle, and attributed his misfortune to its false assurance. The oracle, however, proved itself right for a great nation did fall, although, unhappily for the superstitious monarch, it was h own. Our morning contemporary, it would seem, is guided by a similar ambiguous deity, and in consequence has fallen into sad misfortunes. The people of Victoria demand the foreible removal of the Church Reserve fences, and the Chronicle oracle says, " Don' go to law for the Bishop can buy you al up!" The people of course don't go to law —not exactly because the Bishop has got money, but because they are determined to morning contemporary, with a scream of selfsatisfaction, insists that they have done just 'as we suggested." In order to clear up certain matters which appeared misty to the City Council, that body applies to counse for legal opinion, and the Chronicle, concluding that the Council is thus going to law, a once suggests the idea of carrying the case into court, and again vociferates that the thing is to be done "just as we suggested." The Council however, with the old determination, as expressed by the inhabitants a the public meeting, of compelling the Bishop to take the initiative, are not anxious for legal martyrdom, and call for a subscription to have the fences removed. This step the oracle considers as conclusive evidence of the preliminary preparation of engaging legal champions, and once more congratulates itself on understanding public opinion, and compelling the citizens to adopt the course which "it suggested." When, however, it discovers that the money is not for the lawyer but for the fence-remover, it is no way discomfited, but waiting until the injunctio is served upon the Council, again pats itself upon the head for discovering that the matter is at last to be placed in a court of law, and that its excessive zeal for order is at length being appreciated. With a frantic flourish of trumpets it screams louder and more selflaudatory than ever, " just as we suggested.' The injunction, however, becomes fruitless and while the oracular cry is fresh on the morning air, the fences are taken down. We believe that the last blow would have floored the Delphic oracle in its most triumphan days, but our contemporary is made of elastic stuff, and it manages to find even in this mat ter something done by somebady that corresponds with "just what we suggested.'
On Friday, the very morning on which the fences were torn down, the amusing self laudation is thus kept up. "The Colonist, says the oracle, " could not get up an excitement on the question of the title of the Church trustees, nor get the fences torn down in the Donnybrook style, for the body of the public leaned towards the opinion of the Chronicle, that the title was valid in law. One would have thought that by this time i would have got fairly sickened with its unfortunate predictions and self-glorification Not so, however; the very next day it turns the worst of all its disappointments and blunders to good account. "We expressed the opinion," it says, "that the Council would not conduct this affair, with credit or profit to themselves or the city. To-day our words come true." Talk of the "irrepressible negro" after this. Why a very mountain of dead-weight would not keep down such an clastic spirit. We have now arrived at the climax. In vesterday morning's issue we are told that application is about to be made to restrain the Bishop from "re-creeting the fences." "This is going the right way to work," says our legal contemporary. "After blustering and bullying and behaving like rowdies" [the day before they were a sneaking, stealthy lot that shunned the face of day] "the Council have at last things which make this sentence rather funny

In the first place it is totally incorrect-the Council are going to apply for no injunction question its unpopularity as well as its miss fortunes would seem to have reached a clibeen compelled to appeal to the law, exactly what we have all along said they would have to do in the end." There are two or three NEW ADVERTMEMENTS.

The Montrose rifle gathering, the first of the Scottish Volunteers' shooting competitions, still continues to be one of the most popular for the excellence of the marksmen who enter for the prizes. The last contest, on the 20th June, however, eclipses all former efforts, the shooting being something extraordinary. For the benefit of our own Volunteer riflemen we furnish the following brief account of the tournament, taken from the London of the fournament, taken from the Poincar Times of June 22d:—"The chief feature in the proceedings was the contest for the Sootland cup,' carried off, it will be remembered, on the first occasion of the gathering by Mr. Edward Ross. Since then the shooting has greatly improved, and the principal scores in the present contest are said to be highest ever made in a qualic agreettion. the highest ever made in a public competition.

The conditions of the contest for the cup were—seven shots at each of the following ranges, 700, 800 and 900 yards. Amered are the highest scores—Sergeant Forbes, 6th Aberdeenshire, 28, 27, 26, total 81; Mr. Edward Ross, London Scottish, 27, 27, 23, total 77; the hon. Oaptain Arbuthnott, Kincardineshire, Oaptain Morison, Peterhead, and Captain Fordyce, 5th Aberdeenshire, nade 74 each; the Earl of Aberdeen and Mr. Grant Peterkin, of Cambridge, following with 73 cach. All these orack shots, with the exception of Captain Arbuthnott (Henry used the Whitworth rifle. In a competition for a challenge cup among eight of the best marksmen present, at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards, Mr. Edward Ross stood first, with a score of 74-Forbes, the gainer of Sectiand's oup, is a brickmaker in the little village of Ellon, to the north of Aberdeen, and was one of the the north of Aberdeen, and was one of the Scottish eight who shot for and won the Elcho Shield at Wimbledon last year. When reaching a suitable place for their purpose, Martyn was landed to make fast a line, those on board proceeding to more the scow to a boom in the river. That finished, they endeavored to reach the shore by means of some floating logs, in which attempt one of them, named Potersen, was presipitated into the water. He called on Martyn to come to his assistance, who essayed to do so, but treading on a slippery log, he also fell into the river. They both managed to get ihold of a plank, which turned over with them, and poor Martyn sank, and was seen no more. Petersen with difficulty managed to keep alloat until a line was thrown him, when he was hauled ashore in an exhausted state. The rest of the party made every effort to save their shipmate but without success. What makes the matter more singular, the part of the river where the accident occurred has not a depth at any time of over

CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, Sept. 4, 1865.

The Conneil met at 7.20 p. m. Present —Conneiltors Fell, Jeffery, Thorne, Carey, and Hibbard.

In the absence of the Mayor Councillor Fell was voted to the chair.

ABSENCE OF THE MATOR.

A communication was read from the Mayor stating that he was not aware of any legitimate business for the Council to transact until after the injunction was disposed of and that he should not therefore attend.

Mr. Carey expressed surprise at the communication which he thought partook of inscience, and it should not therefore be received.

Mr. Hibbard thought if the letter was received at all it should be with some mark of disapprobation. His Worship must have been aware that the question of the appointment of a solicitor was to come up before the Council, and when he stated that there was no legitimate business.

pointment of a solution was to come up ob-fore the Council, and when he stated that there was no legitimate business to be trans-neted he stated that which was not the case. If His Worship was not prepared to carry out the business of the Council he had better retire and make room for another that would targelined.

the Fideliter, and the collision was 11/2 minutes plus 4 seconds, during which time seconding to the evidence of the Alexandra Mr. Carey moved, seconded by Mr. Thorne, that Mr. Henry C. Courtney be appointed solicitor to the Corporation.

Mr. Carey said he brought forward the resolutions after due deliberation of the committee with Mr. Ring. Mr. Courtney was a young man of good capacity, zoal and energy, and was heart and soul with the Council.

Mr. Thorne thought it time if the Council meant to do anything that they should go to work. Mr. Ring did not object to Mr. Courtney, and he (Mr. T) was in favor of the appointment.

Mr. Carey offered a few comments on the appointment of Mr. Bishop by the Mayor, which he deemed irregular and without the sanction of the Council.

Some discussion took place between Mr. Carey and the Ohairman relative to the mention of Mr. Bishop's name in the records. The Chairman thought the Council could not censure the Mayor for this matter as it had arisen through misapprobension.

Mr. Carey said that was all he wished to say. The Mayor in his anxiety to appoint Mr. Bishop had overlooked the fact that there was no authority for the appointment.

Mr. Thorne condemned the mode of precedure.

Mr. Jeffery—It was a misapprehension. Mr. Carey moved, seconded by Mr. Thorne, that Mr. Henry C. Courtney be appointed solicitor to the Corporation. Mr. Uarey said he brought forward the rebedure.

Mr. Jeffery—It was a misapprehension.

Mr. Thorne did not choose to call it a misapprehension. A thing if not legal must be filegal. He wanted to know how these things found their way into the books, and vere then taken out again. It was time the Council was more independent and more egular. He disapproved of the appointment of the Mayor's bosom friend to be at his beek and call.

The appointment of Mr. Courtney was carried, and the Clerk instructed to send him the appointment under the Corporate seal. THE CHURCH RESERVE FENCES.

Mr. Hibbard on behalf of the committee appointed under resolution of 10th July, re-ported that much had been done by the com-mittee, but that they required still further time.

SIDE WALKS.

Mr. Fell asked if anything had been done in regard to defective side-walks.

The Clerk said the following names had been handed in by the Messenger.—Mason & Balls, E. Jackson, J. L. Jungerman, H. Nathan, Matthieson & Co.

The Messenger said there were other defective side-walks, but the parties would pay no attention to bim as he had handed in some rames, but no action had been taken some rames. me names, but no action had been taken Eighth Day.

Bighth Day.

Monday, Sept. 4th, 1865.
The evidence in the case of the Fideliter against the Alexandra having been concluded. Mr Wood rose to address the Court. He said he would roly on the sase of the "Cleopatra," the "Despatch" and the "Vivid" as reported in the regular reports. The "Vivid" established a principle will, respect to the lamps, as evidence was given which may tend to show that the Alexandra having been stated about hem as being conducive to the accident by reason of any alleged deficiency. The learned counsel referred to the case of the 'Ann' to show that the pleatings of the owners of the Fideliter would no recover except under the allegations of is pleadings, and contended that the pleatings of the owners of the Fideliter would not allow them to adduce evidence of the 'Ann' to show that the pleatings of the owners of the Fideliter would out show that the pleatings of the owners of the Fideliter would out show that the pleatings of the owners of the Fideliter would out show that the pleatings of the owners of the Fideliter would out show that the pleatings and contended that the pleatings of the owners of the Fideliter would out show that the pleatings of the owners of the Fideliter would out show that the pleatings of the owners of the Fideliter would cut short many a serious and fatal attack. ENGLAND AS SEEN THROUGH FRENCH SPECS—The London correspondent of the In-dependence Belge has just favored his coun-tryman with a sketch of life in our metropolis, San Francisco-F. H. Grain and W. S. Suther-land, Agents, 410 Montgomery street. New York-Walter, Watson and James Smith, Agents. tryman with a sketch of life in our metropolis, as proven by the perusal of London newspapers for a single week. First, there is a woman burned alive, in the midst of her drunken and stupefied companions, at the close of a low orgie in a villanous house in Westminster. Next, there are two wives nearly murdered by brutal husbands (one of whom attempts his own life), and a furious assault by a man on his mistress. Another woman is seen one evening with a man in a boat on the Thames; the man reappears alone; some days afterwards the corpse of a woman is found on the bank of the river. Then there is the confession of Constance Kent as to the Road murder. Two clergymen of the English Church abuse the confidence inspired by their sacred character to tempt the virtue of the temales of their flock—one is a vicar in the diocese of Norw.ch, and the other a popular London preacher. A civil court has investigated a charge of soduction, which surpasses in resolution, cow-wide and call. blooded villany anything in BRANCHES: MONTREAL.

Diseases. Diseases.

Scorbutic humors arise from an impure state of the blood, and in most cases the liver and stomach are the organs at fault. The Pills will speedily restore these to a healthy action; while the Oint ment if well rubbed in at least twice a day, will soon cure any case of skin disease. Soldiers sailors, and miners, use this famous Ointment in all parts of the world.

Hollowy's Pills.—A Remedy for Bilious and Liver Complaints.—Those who suffer from bile and liver complaints should try the effects of this valuable remedy, a few doses of which will make the sufferer feel clastic and vigorous, remove all impurities, give a healthy action to the liver, and strengthen the stomach. If bilious at tacks be allowed to continue without using such a preventative, more serious casualties may arise, and the sufferer be consigned to a bed of sickness Holloway's Pills are an extraordinary remedy acting immediately in the removal of acting you the stomach, indigestion, debility, and nausea preparing the food thoroughly on assimilation rendering each tributary organ perfect in its function, and stimulating the kidneys num, or 25 cents ser week, when delivered by Is the Best Weekly Newspaper north of San Holloway's Pills for Indigestion, Stomach and Liver Complaints.—Persons suffering from any derangement of the Liver, Stomach, or the Organs of Digestion, should have recourse to Holloway's Pills, as there is no Medicine known that acts on these particular complaints with such certain success. They strengthen the tone of the Stomach, increase the Appetite, purify the Blood, and correct depraved Secretions. In Bowel complaints they remove their primary cause, and soon restore the Patient to sound health. Nervous or sick headaches, and depression of spirits, may be speedily relieved by a course of these Pills. They are composed of rare balsvins, without the admixture of a grain of Mercury, or any noxious substance, and are as safe as they are efficacious.

Holloway's Ointmentand Pills, a certain remedy for diseases of the skin—Ringworm, scury, scrofula, or king's evil, sore heads, and the most inveterate skin diseases to which the human race is subject, cannot be treated with a more safe and speedy remedy than Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which act so peculiarly on the constitution, and so purify the blood that those diseases are eradicated from the system, and a lasting cure is obtained. They are equally efficacious in the cure of tumours, burns, scalls, glandular swellings, ulcerous wounds, rheumawism, contracted and stiffjoints. These medicines operate mildly and surely. The cure effected by them is not temporary or apparent only, but complete and permanent.

Holloway' Cintment and Pills.—Fistu las, Piles, Exceriations, and Strictures, are speedily relieved and ultimately removed by applying this Ointment after fomentation with warm water. Persons suffering from these scounges of the human frame should arrest their procress at one, for it is both insidious and rapid. If long allowed to go on unchecked, Fistulas, weaken the nervous system, but destroy life, sooner these inestimable remedies are used the sooner these inestimable remedies are used the sooner these inestimable remedies are used the sooner these insettimable remedies are used the sooner these insettimable remedies are used to some certain is success; yet none should despair, hopeless cases have often yielded, and the pair, hopeless cases have often yielded, and the pair of plying this Ointment after fomentation with warm Hottoway's Pills.—No Medicine can surpass, these Pills in their purifying and curative power, over every organ of the body. Stomach, liver lungs, heart and kribneys, soon display subjection to their influence, by which all diseases of those organs are arrested, all obstructions removed, and every function is localithuily performed; the digestion is, by their influence, so improved that scarcely any food disagrees; acidity and fatulence alike are checked; nausea and biliouaness disappear, firmness is given to every muscle, and tone to every nerve; the mind becomes exhibitated, and the thoughts become cheefful. These wonderful Pills correct dyspeptic habits; whether resulting from residence in hot climates or over indulgence. They secure by night sound and refreshing sleep, which fits the body for renewed exertions.

Holloway's Pills are decidedly the best remedy for all disorders of the stomach and bowels, the liver and kidneys. They act with so decided an effect, and yet so gently, that people of the most delicate constitutions may take them with the most perfect confidence. They do not contain one grain of mercury or other noxious substance, being composed exclusively of rare balsams. They are, therefore, equally safe and efficacious, and as a family medicine, nothing yet invented or discovered can be sompared with them for a moment. With these inestimable Pills at hand, together with the printed directions affixed to each box, no other medical advice or assistance can be needed in any ordinary case of sick.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS—Palpitation, Shortness of Breath, Dropsy.—This last named disease is often preceded by irregular action of the heart, and difficult respiration which symptoms are always severe, and over go from bad to worse, unless proper means of cure be resorted to. In Holloway's unrivalled Ointment and Pills' the dropsical patient will ever find succour; the present relief derived from the use of these remedies is marvellously quicks and persoverance in the steady application of his noble Ointment invariably results in a lasting and satisfactory cure. The two medicines act with such energy on the circulation and absorbent system, that the dropsical fluid vanishes, and the sufferent finds all the oppressive symptoms daily deeline, till natural health returns.

The Ointment should be well rubbed, twice daily, over the stomach, liver and bowels; to them it penetrates, and, aided by the Pills, immediately works a revolution as establishes perfect digestion.

Holloway's Untiment and Pills—Acute Rheumatism. In all severe pains in the joints and muscles, after due fomentation with hot water, the soothing action of this Ointment is most remarkable; it seems at once to lessen inflammation, ease pain, reduce the swelling, restore the free circulation, and expel the disease. In these complaints, indeed, Holloway's Ointment and Pills are an infallible specific. The Ointment should be rubbed as near the part in pain as the patient can bear; it is absorbed and directly conveyed to the diseased textures, when, acting on nerves, vessels, and guiders, it will arrost disease and again establish ealthy action. The aperient and purifying qualities of the Fills have the happiest effect in assisting the Ointment.
